nd a weak closing. The Mexican news received considerable attention nd it was far from reassuring in regards to the success of mediation. The eault was considerable nervousness in anticipation of an announcement regarding Missouri Pacific financing plan. The producers' statement showed an increase of only 5,727,000 pounds in the visible supply and this is better than expected but it had an ill effect on the coppers. Late in the day the Mexican new locked real serious and it was stated that Huerta had made the threat he would take the offensive unless the landing of troops and munitions of war are discontinued. It was further states that Huerta has closed all Mexican perts to American vessels. Just what will develop over night remains to be seen, but many are of the opinion that a cobile is near at hand in the Mexican INTENTE:

BANKERS AND BROKERS.

Boston, Mass., May 8.-The market continued downward today and closed at low prices due to the less favorable outlook for settlement of the Mexican troubles. Missouri Pacific was most active in New York and much weaker, owing to failure to reach any plan of financing its maturing obligations. The coppers were all weaker and outlook for higher metal was not very bright. Increase of 56 million pounds in surplus during the past month was not as large as generaly expected. We fail to see where much loss can be gustained in buy ing around present levels.
